Dear Parents

Thank you to all our wonderfully talented students who entertained us so magnificently at our School Production last Thursday evening! I was very proud of every student's performance and I acknowledge the magnificent efforts of all staff and parents in making the production such a success!

Congratulations to all students who participated in the recent University of New South Wales Spelling Skills test.

Thank you to Gaynor Williams and her P & F helpers for the Chomp n Chew lunch provided to students on Tuesday. The students all thoroughly enjoy these special days and it is a great way to celebrate the end of a very productive term.

Congratulations to the boys football team who have qualified for the Grand Final of the 2009 Eastlink Cup. Good luck to the boys who will play next Saturday morning at the TEAC oval, 525 Williamstown Road, Port Melbourne. The match will be played from 12 -1 pm as the curtain raiser to the VFL Preliminary Final between North Ballarat and Collingwood.

Enjoy a very relaxing holiday with your family!

Regards

Kevin Sertori - Principal
